

Center for Community and Nonprofit Studies
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Fall Event

Afternoon Session: Democratizing Evaluation

Featuring:

Hazel Symonette, Division of Student Life and the Student Success Institute

Nicky Bowman, LEAD Center and Bowman Performance Consulting

Jeffrey Lewis, UW-Extension Program Development and Evaluation

Moderators: Amy Hilgendorf and Lori Bakken

When: Thursday, Oct. 20th at 1:30pm

Where: Nancy Nicholas Hall, Room 1199

This year's CommNS Fall Event theme offers new perspectives on the question, "What Does Democracy Look Like?" We'll explore the diverse range of democratic methods employed by researchers and practitioners on a range of topics, including civic engagement and health, cooperatives and democratic ownership, democratic evaluation, youth organizing, civic engagement and youth development, and more!